

Index

A

AARP, 80, 180
Action, areas of, recommendations for, 167–173
Action Without Borders/Idealists, 37
Addams, J., 135
Affirmative action programs, 25
Ageism, 13, 80
Aim Alliance, 278
Air Jordan, 35
Alliance for Nonprofit Management, 178
Almanza, S., 94
Alston/Bannerman Fellowship, 179
Alternative pathways, to leadership, 126–132
American Red Cross, 102
Andrea and Charles Bronfman Philanthropies, 180
Annie E. Casey Foundation, 4, 99, 177
Antiwar activities, 22, 23, 166
Archila, A. M., 141
Ashoka, 135
Asian American movement, 24
Asian Immigrant Women Advocates (AIWA), 89
Assessment stage, 56, 57, 148
Assumptions: checking out, importance of, 172–173; mistaken, about Generation X, 107–108
Attitudes, influence of, reflecting on, exercise for, 164–166
Awareness, 64, 71, 154, 155–157

B

Baby boomers: aging, issue of, 3–7, 50, 79, 80; bridge between Generation X and, generation that serves as a, 166–167; and building the infrastructure for social change, 26–31; challenges in moving forward for, 78–85; concerns held by, about younger generations, 33–34; described, 21, 22–23; frustration felt toward, 45–46; future contribution of, determining, 101–103; importance of legacy to, 51, 99–100; increased workload of, 44; and looking ahead, 87; and the meaning of trust for, 157; organizations led by, questioning, 112–125; plans of, questioning and reflecting on, 81–82; replacement theory involving, 9; social activism of, 23–26; and storytelling, 147, 162; tasks of, and their leadership stage, 56, 57, 148; that are staying on top, 9–10, 110–111; and their role relationships with other generations, 58, 60–61, 150; view of younger leaders, 8, 31–33; what younger generations want from, 50; who plan on leaving their organization, 96–101; who plan on staying in their organization, 87–96

Baby boomers and veterans of change. See Older generations
Bain & Company, 5
Balance, finding, between work life and personal life, 167–169
Baruch College School of Public Affairs, 128
Beatles, The, 22
Benefits, availability of, creating mechanisms to improve, 171–172
Berlin Wall, fall of the, 35
Beyond the Myth of the Perfect Mentor: Building a Network of Developmental Relationships (Hill and Kamprath), 131
Black movement, 24

Boards: baby boomers confiding in, about their future plans, issue of, 82–83; leadership of, critical need for, during the transition period, 99; trust between, and executive directors, building, exercise for, 71

Boomers. See Baby boomers

Boys and Girls Clubs, 102

Brat Pack, 35

Bridge builders, examples of, 159, 166–167

Bridges, W., 84–85

Bridgespan Group, 5, 178

Brown, J., 22

Budget items, largest, 144n13

Building Movement Project, 177

Burnout, 8, 31, 118

Business skills, younger generations acquisition of, 39–40, 41

Buy-in, importance of, 143

C

Canadian nonprofit sector, 4

Career advancement: lack of, 8; steps for, 127–129

Carucci, R., 114, 160

Change: approaching, large-scale response to, need for, 103–104; as opportunity, seeing, for growth and learning, 173–175; vs. transition, 84–85. See also Leadership transitions

Chatterjee, O., 141

Chaudhry, L., 107–108

Chavez, C., 22

Chicano movement, 24

Chin, G., 27–28

Chinatown Community Development Center, 27

City Year, 37

Civic Ventures, 102, 180

Civil Rights Act, 25

Civil rights movement: deromanticizing experiences of the, 45; generation shaped by, 23, 24

Class experiences, 23–24, 36

Clinton administration, 35

Codirector model, 137, 138–140, 141, 143, 169

Collective decision-making processes, using, 141

Commitment, of younger generations, 41–43, 118

Commongood Careers, 177

Communication, importance of, 143, 160–167

Communication styles, different, adjusting for, 173

Communism, 23

Community action agencies, 25

Community organization building, 28

Community organizing, learning about, 37–38

CompassPoint, 4, 177, 178

Compensation, critique of, by younger generations, 121–123

Conference Board, The, 181

Consciousness. See Awareness

Consensus-based decision making, 140–141

Conservative shift, 28–29, 30, 166

Contribution stage, 56, 57, 148

Conversations, engaging in, across generations, 160–167, 172

Cost of living, increased, issue of, 121, 122

Coupland, D., 34

Craigslislist Foundation: Nonprofit Bootcamp, 180

Cross-generational understanding, exercise for, 46–49

Culture: new, advancing a, 170; of trust-building in the workplace, exercise for practicing a, 69

Cure, the, 35

Cuspers, as bridgers, 167. See also Baby boomers

D

Daring to Lead: A National Study of Nonprofit Executive Leadership (Bell, Moyers, and Wolfred), 5, 6, 7, 11–12

Daring to Lead: Nonprofit Executive Directors and Their Work Experience (Peters and Wolfred), 4, 6

Davis, E., 127

Decision making: manner of, critique of, by younger generations, 113–114; participatory, using, 140–141, 143; shared, 90, 169; successful, aspects needed for, 143

Departing, The: Exiting Nonprofit Leaders as Resources for Social Change (Masaoka), 93, 95

Development stage, 56, 57, 148

Distributed leadership, 141–142, 169

Diversity, racial and ethnic, 12, 36
 Durfee Foundation, 102
 Dylan, B., 22
 Dysfunctional organizations, 111

E

Echo Generation. See Millennials
 Echoing Green, 135
 Education, of younger generations, 38–39, 41, 127, 134
 Elite backgrounds, concern over, of social entrepreneurs, 137
 Elite education, 39, 127, 134
 Elite foundations, funding from, questioning, 117
 Emerging Practitioners in Philanthropy, 180
 Entrepreneurship, social, embracing, 134–137
 Entry-level jobs, being tracked into and stuck with, 109–110
 Equal Rights Congress, 26
 Established leadership model, 126
 Establishment stage, 56, 57, 148
 Executive director position: defining the, exercise for, 123–125; new norms for the, supporting, 168; problem of the, redefining the, 10–11; role of, in distributed leadership, 142
 Executive exodus, anticipated, 3, 4, 5, 6
 Executive Fellows, 128
 Executive transition management (ETM): described, 100–101; development of, 4–5; services of, providing, 5
 Exhaustion, 30
 Exodus, anticipated, 3, 4, 5, 6
 Experience and expertise, combining, 170
 Experience Corps, 102
 External values, contradiction between, and internal operations, 112–113, 169

F

Facebook, 35
 Fair compensation, desire for, 121–123
 Falwell, J., 35
 Finances, research on, conducting, need for, 171
 Financial concerns, personal: of baby boomers, 79–81; of both generations, 170; of younger generations, 121, 122
 Financial divide, 122

Financial literacy, 170–172
 Financial literacy programs, developing, need for, 171
 Flattened hierarchies, failure of, reasons for, 143
 Formal organizational structures, alternative to, 136
 For-profit sector: boomers leaving the, contribution of, 101; compensation in the, issue of, 122; finding a better fit in the, 112; fluidity between nonprofit sector and, 40–41; learning from the, 39–40; mentoring in the, benefits of, 129; social entrepreneurs and the, 136, 137
 Founders: strong, and weak boards, issue of, 99; younger generation of, commitment of, 42–43
 Freelancers Union, 172
 Freidman, A., 141
 Funding: government, 27, 29, 117; new ways of, consideration of, 170; type of, questioning, 117
 Funding expectations, different, creating, 168–169
 Fundraising, issue with, 29

G

Gandhi, M., 119
 Gates, B., 35
 Gauna, J., 139, 140, 158, 159
 Gay liberation, 24
 Gender bias, 117, 130
 Generation gap, questioning the, 32–33
 Generation X: aging of, issues with, 41, 110–111; boomers mistaken assumptions about, 107–108; bridge between boomers and, generation that serves as a, 166–167; commitment of, 42; concerns of, 3; described, 34–35, 36; elite education of leaders in, 39; focus on, reason for, 108; life cycle and flow of, 43–44; literature and media on, 34; and the meaning of trust for, 157; and the skills to lead, 38–41; tasks of, and their leadership stage, 56, 57, 148; and their role relationships with other generations, 58, 60–61, 150–151; view of older generation held by, 34
 Generation X and millennials. See Younger generations
 Generation X (Coupland), 34
 Generation Y. See Millennials

Generational Change in Leadership: Implications for Social Change Organizations (Kunreuther), 39

Generational differences: conflicts from, seeing, as opportunity, exercise for, 115–116; real and perceived, surfacing, exercise for, 62–64

Generational shifts in leadership. See Leadership transitions

Generations: bonds across, 64; literature explaining, 34; wariness between, 49

Generosity, of spirit, importance of, 67, 173

GI bill, 22

Global mobilizations, 35

Good to Great (Collins), 39

Government funding: available amounts of, during growth of nonprofit sector, 27; questioning, by younger generation, 117; reduction in, 29

Grameen Bank, 135

GrantCraft, 177

Grantmakers for Effective Organizations, 177

Great Depression, the, 22

Guerrero, M. L., 139, 140, 158, 159

Gurzinsky, E., 28

H

Harvard University, 39

Heroic leadership model, moving beyond, 169

Hierarchical organizational structure, 13–14, 113, 142, 143

Historical events, key, list of, by decade, 47–48. See also specific events

I

Ice Storm, The (movie), 35

Idealist.org, 177, 178

Identity issues, younger generations of color facing, 116, 117

Internal operations, contradiction between external values and, 112–113, 169

iPods, 35

J

Job responsibilities: distributing the load of, in shared leadership, 138; doable, starting with, 168; identifying the, exercise for, 123–125; pushing down, 142; shifting, issue of, 89–90, 126

Johnson Center, 178

Junior Fellows, 128

K

Kennedy assassination, 22

King, M. L., Jr., 22, 119

King, R., 35

Kopp, W., 135

L

Latin American Integration Center (LAIC), 141

Leaders, finding, exercise for, and finding solutions, 15, 16–18

Leadership: distributed, 141–142, 169; established, 126; shared, 137–140, 143, 169

Leadership building, 128–129

Leadership challenge, stepping up to the, issue of, 132–134

Leadership Deficit (Tierney), 5

Leadership development: resources for, 178–179; of younger leaders, addressing, 88–89, 120–121

Leadership Divided (Carucci), 114

Leadership expansion, 93–94

Leadership ideas, new, using, 169

Leadership jobs, redefining, supporting younger generations in, 123–125. See also Job responsibilities

Leadership Learning Community, 127

Leadership pathways, alternative, 126–132

Leadership Pipeline, The (Charan, Drotter, and Noel), 128

Leadership skills: acquisition of, 28, 30, 38–41; building, steps for, 127; and management skills, combining, receiving training on, 169

Leadership sustainability, critique of, by younger generations, 118–125

Leadership transitions: leaving the organization and, 96–101; marking the beginning of organization-wide changes, example of, 173–174; planning for, realizing the need for, 84–85, 86–87; preparing for, exercise for, 85–86; redefining the problem of, 8–9; resources for, 178–179; staying in the organization and, 87–96; tension before

- the change involved in, easing, 97–99; thinking about, ways of, and the implications of each, 9–15; and trust, 67
- Leading organizations: adopting new ways of, across generations, 169–170; forging new approaches to, 134–142
- League of Revolutionary Black Workers, 26
- Learning by doing: modus operandi of, 28; problem with, 30
- Legacy, importance of, 51, 99–100
- Lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender movement, 24
- Lessons learned, passing on, suggestions for, 162–163
- Liberation movements, 24, 26
- Life and work transitions, older leaders making, developing pathways for, 103–104
- Life cycle and flow, 43–44
- Life span, 78, 79
- Linkages Board Training and Placement, 128
- Listening, importance of, 160, 161
- Longevity, 78, 79
- M
- Madonna, 35
- Make the Road New York, 141
- Malcolm X, 119
- Management Assistance Group (MAG), 94–95, 178
- Managing, importance of leading and, 169
- Martin, C., 118
- Masaoka, J., 93
- Materialism, issue of, 33
- Mental models, issue of, 11, 13
- Mentoring, 129–132, 161
- Meyer Foundation, 177
- Microlending, 135
- Millennials: being usurped by, worrying about, 108; commitment of, 41, 42, 118; described, 35–36; life cycle and flow of, 43; and the meaning of trust for, 157; and the skills to lead, 41; tasks of, and their leadership stage, 56, 57, 148; and their role relationships with other generations, 58, 60–61, 151
- Millennials and Generation X. See Younger generations
- Mirabella, R., 38
- Mission, shared decision making on, issue of, 90
- Mission statement, sample of a, 66
- Mistrust: age as a factor in, dismissing, 161; cycle of, example of a, 158
- Montessori, M., 135
- Montessori school movement, 135
- Moore, R., 139
- Moral Majority, 35
- Movement building, 103, 137, 170, 177
- Movement Strategy Center, 93, 121, 178, 179
- MySpace, 35, 41
- N
- Nation, The*, 107
- National Community Development Institute, 178
- National Council on Aging, 181
- National Organizers Alliance pension plan, 171–172
- National Welfare Rights Organization, 25
- New England Executive Transitions Partnership, 4
- New structures and practices solution, 14–15
- New/next generations. See Younger generations
- Ng'ethe Maina, 120–121
- 9/11 attacks, generation shaped by, 35
- Nonprofit management and leadership programs, 38, 39
- Nonprofit sector: development of the, influence on the, 26–27; difficulty entering the, 109–112; draw toward working in the, 36–38; exposure to the, 37, 52n9; fluidity between for-profit sector and, 40–41; growth in the, 27; leaving, reasons for, 6, 7, 8; questioning the, 117
- Nonprofit Sector Workforce Coalition, 122
- Nonprofit Workforce Coalition, 52n9, 180
- NP2020 Conference, 178, 180
- O
- Older generations: admiration and awe felt toward, 44–45, 50; back to

- the future for, 28–31; benefits to, from being mentors, 130; combining the experience of, with expertise of younger leaders, 170; concerns held by, about younger generations, 33–34; at a crossroads, 21–34; and discussions about awareness, 155; dominating the top, 10; experience accumulated by, 38; extending trust, idea of, 66, 160; future contribution of, determining, 77; and growing into leadership roles, 28; as inspirational, 44–45; language of, vs. young social entrepreneurs, 137; and leadership expansion, 93–94; mental models of, 11; model of leadership established by, 126; myth about, 31; pathways for, developing, need for, 103–104; personal and political transformation of, 25–26; recognition problem involving, 11, 13, 114; recognizing the contributions of, 102; resources for, 180–181; stereotype of, 43; talking with, suggestions for younger generations, 164–166; talking with younger generations, suggestions for, 161–163; teaching, how to be mentors, 132; view held by, of younger generations, 8, 31–33; view of, held by younger generations, 7, 34, 134; and what they want from younger generations, 50–51; what younger generations want from, 49–50; who stay in the organization, concerns of, 95–96. See also Baby boomers; Veterans of change
- Open conversations, environment for, creating, 172
- Optimism, fading, 29
- Organization building, 28
- Organizational entry, difficulty of, for younger generations, 109–112
- Organizational glue, 66
- Organizational malaise, 110–112
- Organizational solution, example of an, 18
- Organizational structure: addressing, 13–15, 89–90; participatory, developing, 169–170; reinventing, 134–142; reorganizing, for organizational transformation, 142–143
- Outcomes: looking beyond, 170; shared decision making on, issue of, 90
- P
- Parks, R., 22
- Participatory decision making, using, 140–141, 143
- Participatory structures, developing, 169–170
- Partners, organization of, creating an, 141–142
- Partnership for Immigrant Leadership and Action (PILA), 178
- Pathways: developing, for older leaders to make work and life transitions, 103–104; leadership, alternative, 126–132
- Peer-based group support: benefits of, 98–99; exercise involving, for baby boomers, 98; ongoing, for aging leaders, need for, 97–98
- Personal financial concerns: of baby boomers, 79–81; of both generations, 170; of younger generations, 121, 122
- Personal life, balancing work life and, 167–169
- Personal renewal: focusing on, for the long haul, 118–121; resources for, 179
- Personal solution, example of a, 17–18
- Perspectives from the Pipeline, 180
- Pivot stage, 101
- PODER (People Organized to Defend Earth and Her Resources), 94
- Political awareness, understanding, across generations, exercise for, 155–156
- Politics, involvement in, 107
- Power: differences in, recognizing, 172; distributing, way of, 90; formal organization vs. actual exercise of, issue with, 111; frustration over, expressed by younger generations, 132; and mentoring, 130, 131; pushing down, 143; in shared leadership, 138; sharing, need for, 50, 114–115, 130
- Power struggles, 138
- Prepare stage, 101
- Project South: Institute for Elimination of Poverty and Genocide, 26
- Purpose Prize, 102
- Push down: of leadership, 142; of power, 143

Q

Questioning boomer-led organizations, 112–125

R

Race and ethnicity: as a barrier to recognizing young leaders, 11–13, 116, 130; diversity by, as a generational norm, 36; and mentoring issues, 130, 132; speaking about, manner of, critiquing organizations on, 116–117

Ready to Lead? (Cornelius, Corvington, and Ruesga), 40, 126, 127, 137

Reagan, R., 166

Recognition, older generation receiving, issue of, 50, 51

Recognition problem, 11–13, 114, 116, 130

ReGeneration: Young People Shaping Environmental Justice (Quiroz-Martinez, Wu, and Zimmerman), 93

Relationships: mentoring, improving, 131–132; role, 58–60, 147, 148–150

Religious tradition, influence of, 23

Renewal. See Personal renewal

Replacement theory, 9

Research: list of, and reports, 177–178; needed, on personal finances of leaders and staff, 171

Resource Generation, 180

Resources, list of, 177–181

Retirement: boomers facing, issue of, 4, 6, 20n11, 78, 79, 81, 101, 102; traditional, 3, 50

Rockwood Leadership Institute, 119, 179

Role changes, while staying in the organization, 93–96

Role differences: described, 55–57; starting a conversation on, and what needs to be accomplished, exercise for, 151–153; summarized, 148

Role relationships, 58–61, 147, 148–150

Roles framework, 55–64, 147–154

S

Salaries: as a budget item, 144n13; concern over, 121, 122; low, 8

Sandwich generation. See Generation X

Scott, J., 25–26

Sectorwide solution, example of a, 18

Seigel, D., 114–115

Selah, 119

Senior Fellows, 128

Settlement house movement, 135

Sexual orientation, views on, issue of, 117

Shadow boomers, as bridgers, 167.

See also Baby boomers

Shakur, T., 35

Shared decision making, 90, 169

Shared leadership, 137–140, 143, 169

Shared workspace, 122, 144n13

Sharing power, need for, 50, 114–115, 130

Shin, Y., 89

Silent generation. See Veterans of change

Simpson, O. J., 35

Sister organizations: creating, 93, 94; merging with, 141

Sisterhood Interrupted (Seigel), 114–115

Skills building, 127

Skoll Foundation, 136

Social activism, 23–26

Social change: building the infrastructure for, 27; ideals of, younger generation drawn to the, 36

Social entrepreneurship, embracing, 134–137

Social Justice Leadership, 120–121, 179

Social justice movements, 24–25

Social sector. See Nonprofit sector

Solutions: categories of, 17; finding, exercise for finding leaders and, 15, 16–18

South Africa's apartheid, 35

Southwest Network for Environmental and Economic Justice, 139

SouthWest Organizing Project (SWOP), 139–140, 157–160, 164, 166, 173–174

Spirit in Action, 119, 179

Spirit in Motion Program, 121

Staying on top situation, 9–10

Steinem, G., 22

Stepping Up or Stepping Out: A Report on the Readiness of Next Generation Nonprofit Leaders (Solomon and Sandahl), 119

Stone Circles, 119, 120, 179

Strategic planning: exercise for, that will help in future transitions, 90, 91–92; long-term, idea of younger generations leading, 90

Stress: amount of, experienced by executives, 6–7, 29; coping with, younger leaders' way of, 119

Structural solution, example of a, 18

Stuck on arrival (SOA), 109–110

Student debt, issue of, 121, 122

Succession, boomers concern over, 83–84

Support Center for Nonprofit Management, 128, 179

Supportive roles: reflecting on, exercise for, 151; and things to avoid, 58–60, 148–150

Sustainability: discussion about funding and, 170; of leadership, critique of, by younger generations, 118–125; of their organizations, concern for, plans of boomers affected by, 83–84

T

Task differences, 55, 56, 58

Teach for America, 37, 135

Team leadership model, 137, 138, 169

Technical Assistance for Community Services, 179

Technological natives, generation of, 35

Television, influence of, 22, 35

Text messaging, 35

Thrive stage, 101

Tides Center, 144n13

Tides Shared Space, 144n13

Tippling Point, The (Gladwell), 39

Traditional generation. See Veterans of change

Training programs, providing, 127

Transition vs. change, 84–85. See also Change; Leadership transitions

Trust: defined, 65; developing, between the generations, 172–173; rebuilding, example of, 67; understanding, exercise for, 68; in the values frame, 65, 66–68, 154, 160

Trust-building: with the board, exercise on, 71; culture of, in the workplace, exercise for practicing, 70; raising awareness and, 157; and sharing a vision, story of, 157–160; understanding, 172; ways of, 154; in the workplace, exercise for, 69

21/64 consulting, 180

Tyagi, A. W., 121

U

Understanding: cross-generational, exercise for, 46, 46–49; generational, in the values frame, 71

U.S. population, diversity of, 12

United States Social Forum, 26

United Way of New York, 4, 7–8, 127, 128–129

University of San Diego, 4

V

Vallecitos Mountain Refuge, 119, 179

Values: defined, 64; external, contradiction between, and internal operations, 112–113, 169; talking about, help in, 73

Values framework, 64–73, 154–160

Veterans of change: generation born to, 21; late, focusing on, and boomers, reasons for, 22; and the meaning of trust for, 157; and social activism, 23, 24–25; tasks of, and their leadership stage, 56, 57, 148; and their role relationships with other generations, 58, 60, 148–149; and trust issues, example of, 67

Veterans of change and baby boomers. See Older generations

Video gaming, 35

Vietnam War, 22, 25, 25–26, 166

Visibility issue, 11–12, 13, 107

Vision: defined, 65; shared decision making on, issue of, 90; sharing a, and building trust, story of, 157–160; in the values frame, 65–66, 154

Vision statement, sample of a, 66

W

Warren, E., 121

We Make the Road by Walking, 141

Windcall Institute, 119, 179

Women's consciousness-raising groups, 25

Women's movement, 24, 114–115, 166

Work and life transitions, older leaders making, developing pathways for, 103–104

Work demands: coping with, younger leaders' way of, 119; stress from, experienced by executives, 6–7, 29

Work life, balancing personal life and, 167–169
Working-class struggles, 23, 24
Workload, increased, facing both generations, 44
Workplace, integrating financial literacy into the, 172
Workspace, shared, 122, 144n13
World War II, generation shaped by, 21. See also Veterans of change

Y

Yale University, 135
Young Nonprofit Professionals Network, 8, 40, 178, 180
Younger generations: admiration and awe felt by, toward older generations, 44–45; ambivalence felt by, about taking top leadership positions, 126; benefits to, from having a mentor, 129–130; commitment of, 41–43, 118; concerns about, held by older generations, 33–34; decisions about the future facing, 77; and discussions about awareness, 155; draw of, to nonprofit work, 36–38; education of, 38–39, 41, 127, 134; entering the nonprofit sector, issues facing, 109–112; expertise of, combining, with experience of older leaders, 170; frustrations felt by, 45–46; and leadership expansion, 93–94; leading long-term strategic planning, idea of, 90; looking ahead, 108–109; making room for, 10, 111; pathways for, alternative, developing, 126–132; personal and political transformation of, 37–38; personal challenges facing, affecting leadership, 43–44; plans of, 8; and questioning boomer-led organizations, 112–125; recognition problem facing, 11, 13; and redefining the executive director position, 11; resources for, 180; stepping up of, 34; stereotype of, 43; strategies of, 32; talking with older generations, suggestions for, 164–166; talking with, suggestions for older generations, 161–163; transmitting knowledge to, issue of, 29–30; view held by, of older generations, 7, 34, 134; view of, held by older generations, 8, 31–33; what older generations want from, 50–51; and what they want from older generations, 49–50; world of the, 108. See also Generation X; Millennials
Youth for Change, 12–13
YouTube, 35, 41
Yunus, M., 135